NOTE: The "home institution" is the ARCHE institution at which a student is currently enrolled in a program for which academic credit is awarded (the definition of a "program" shall be determined by the home institution). The "host institution" is the ARCHE institution at which a student would like to attend a course through cross registration.

Eligibility Criteria Checklist

- In good academic standing as defined by the home institution and meet all eligibility requirements set by home institution. Students should check with their home institution's Cross Registration Coordinator for detailed eligibility requirements and deadlines specific to that school.
- Currently enrolled at home institution in at least one course at the undergraduate, graduate, or professional level in a program for which academic credit is awarded (the definition of a "program" shall be determined by the home institution)
- Not a first-semester freshman (unless cross registering in courses for purposes of ROTC training or marching band)
- Requested course not offered concurrently during semester at home institution, and not a non-credit continuing education course, workshop, seminar or for audit
- Meet prerequisites (if any) for requested course, as defined by host institution
"Host institutions may choose to check prerequisites for courses through their institution. As part of the applicant process, students may provide transcripts and/or other documentation to illustrate the necessary prerequisites have been met. Transcript and/or documentation requirements will be determined by the host institution."
- Meet all immunization and health requirements as required at host institution
- Meet all application deadlines
- Have obtained required approvals from home and host institutions

Student's Cross Registration Procedure

- A. Obtain a Cross Registration Application from home institution's cross registration coordinator or registrar's office. The form also is available at <http://www.atlantahighered.org/CrossRegistration>. Complete first three sections.
- B. Verify that the course requested is offered at host institution. Identify whether enrollment restrictions or prerequisites apply for the requested course(s) offered by host institution.
- C. Consult with home institution academic advisor to determine eligibility for cross registration. Complete the Course(s) Requested section of the Cross Registration Application and have academic advisor sign it.
- D. Consult with home institution's cross registration coordinator to determine host institution's registration procedure, immunization requirements, etc., and have coordinator sign the Cross Registration Application. The home institution's cross registration coordinator will forward the application to the host institution and request approval for cross registration. If the host institution course instructor's or department's approval is required, the student may be directed to obtain the required signatures.
- E. Once all approvals have been obtained, the host institution's cross registration coordinator will register student for the approved course(s) on a space-available basis after host institution's regularly enrolled or continuing students have had first priority for registration. The host institution's cross registration coordinator will inform the student of approval and registration status. All applicable course fees must be paid to home institution when due by the home institution. However, special fees (lab, parking, equipment lease, etc.) and security deposits must be paid to host institution.
- F. Student must abide by all home and host institution policies and schedules regarding grades, exam dates, absences, drop/add/ withdrawal, etc. To withdraw from a course, both the home and host institutions' withdrawal procedures must be followed. Changes in cross registration must be approved by both institutions' cross registration coordinators.
- G. Some institutions do not allow cross registration during the summer. These institutions are indicated below.
- H. If home institution does not participate in cross registration during the summer, student must seek admission to the host institution as a transient student by contacting host institution's admission office for application deadlines.
- I. Seniors who are graduating at the end of the semester in which they are cross registered shall be responsible for contacting the host institution coordinator to obtain an alternate grade report to provide to the home institution.
- J. Students requiring disability accommodations for the requested classes should contact their home institution Disability Support Coordinator at the time of application in order to permit time to arrange accommodations.

ARCHE Cross Registration Application Deadlines

Home institution's Cross Registration coordinator must submit request to host institution by this date. Students should check with their home institution for earlier internal deadlines.
